North Carolina Gazette.

This new candidate for public favor, Vol. 1 No 1, is received to-day. It is a remarkably handsome seven column weekly, published by J. H. & G. G. Myrover, Fayetteville, N. C. at $3 00 per annum. The Gazette is conservative in politics and its editors are evidently practical men. Its typography and general make up prove this to even a careless observer. We welcome the Gazette into the treadmill of journalism and hope it may have all the success it deserves.

Farmers and Fairs.

The summer is rapidly passing away, and soon the season for our Agricultural Fairs will be here. While we are all speculating over the doings of the "Granges," and the various benefits to arise from that organization to the agricultural interests, let us not forget one most important duty—the support of our local Fairs. The struggles of the Cape Fear Association are known to many, and yet it seems to us that our farmers do not sufficiently appreciate the necessity this organization is to their welfare. If the men for whose benefit this Fair is held, would rally as one man to its support, it would not only prove of incalculable benefit to them, but place the Association where it should be, free from debt, independent and the pride of the people. Every farmer in this Congressional district should consider it his duty to contribute something to its success. Certainly every man cultivating the soil has something worthy of exhibition, which he could send, and thus make it a grand success. At every Fair held here, we have heard planters say, "I have as good or better stock (or vegetables) than that at home." Why did he not bring them? The planters of Sampson should compare their fruits and products with the planters of Columbus, and the interchange of experiences and mutual acquaintance would be of wonderful benefit. The pleasure of this annual meeting of men engaged in the same pursuits, is worth all the trouble it occasions to prepare articles for exhibition.

The present high price of labor, and its scarcity in many places, behooves every planter to learn what is the best machinery to purchase for cultivating purposes. He will find that out at the Fair. Not only are there hundreds of machines, from cotton pickers to plows, but men are in attendance who have tested them in our soils, and whose experience is very valuable. One man may have purchased a cotton plow which proved utterly useless. His experience might deter others from a needless expense. On the other hand, a planter may have used a cotton plow of wonderful convenience, which every man in the business should have, and his experience would be of incalculable benefit.

The prices of our products have been low of late years, compared to the expense of making them, and our planters do not realize as much in proportion to the capital invested as persons in many other pursuits. Now, if they can make the same crops at half the expense, they could make money, and soon arrive at a competency. The only way we see to do this, is by the use of the proper sort of machinery. Much money is thrown away in the purchase of machinery not suited to our wants. No man who attends the Fairs, and really tries to inform himself, need make such a mistake. He there can have an opportunity, not only to see the machinery, but learn of its practical benefit in this section.—With the approved machines he can plant a large crop, make it, and prepare it for market at half the expense, thus enabling him to come into competition with other lands, and make a fair margin on his investment and labor. Is not this worth striving for? With crops always in demand, much splendid soil, a magnificent climate, and thousands of experienced planters, we still complain of "hard times," and see our planters, the foundation of all wealth, struggling on for a bare pittance. This ought not so to be, and will not continue, if they will rally to the support of the Agricultural Fairs, and come there with their eyes and ears open, determined to learn something. Will they do it? We will wait for the next Fair at Wilmington and see. If they will turn out en masse, as we see them do in the North, and bring specimens of their culture or their [illegible] respectively.

ciation, and really try to find out where they can improve in the transaction of their business, we will witness a marked improvement in the prosperity of our section.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— A fight took place in Scott county, Virginia, between a small force of United States revenue men, under Colonel George T. Egbert, United States Deputy Marshal, and a gang of illicit distillers, in which a man named Wilcox, an assistant of the marshal, was killed by John A. Vingard, who had previously surrendered, but was rescued by his friends. The marshal had but three men, and was opposed by a gang of eight.

— R. W. Perry, supervisor of internal revenue for North Carolina and other States, transmits a letter from Pinkney Rollins, collector of the 7th district of this State, announcing a raid of internal revenue officers and the military into Transylvania and Henderson counties on the 28th ult. They destroyed four distilleries and arrested two distillers, one of whom, a perfect desperado, called himself the "Governor of the Blockaders." He made desperate resistance, but was overpowered, tried, and bound over for the next term of the court.

— Japan correspondence states that a serious outbreak had taken place at Fukukoka, in the province of Tsikusen, on 21st of June. Ten thousand men, armed with bamboo spears, assisted by the former Daimio's retainers, attacked the Government castle at Fukukoka.—They readily effected an entrance and set fire to the building, and destroyed all the official books and papers. Six officers were killed and four said to have died by their own hands. Three officers only escaped and fled to Laga, six miles from Nagasaki. The telegraph line just completed from Nagasaki to Tsikusen has been utterly destroyed. The houses of all the inhabitants of Hokata who refused to join the insurgents were burned on the 21st of June. But little blood has been shed so far. The rich merchants and native bankers are plundered of all the money that can be found. Some 30,000 men are reported at Awamoriken, and another at Matsmai. The causes of the risings are said to be heavy taxation. The rebels demand the following concessions: First, return to the old law restoring to the Daimios their land and incomes; second, that the officers of the district shall be appointed from among the inhabitants of the district, and not from distant parts; third, that the incomes of all property of the Samouri shall be returned; fourth, that the taxes shall be reduced by one-half for the space of three years; fifth, that the Government shall cease cutting down trees in the surrounding districts; sixth, a return to the old Japanese calendar. Some of the demands are impracticable. The rebellion is spreading, it having broken out in several places.

— The following is the platform adopted Thursday night at the Democratic Convention at Richmond:

We, the representatives of the Conservative people of Virginia, in convention assembled, do declare—

First, That a contrast of the condition of Virginia, under Conservative government, with the condition of those Southern States which have been under Radical rule, illustrates the wisdom of the people of Virginia in the adoption of their plan of State policy, and demonstrates the necessity of continuing the powers of the State government in the control of the Conservative people of this Commonwealth.

Second. That the chief purpose of the Conservative party of Virginia is to secure to every citizen of this Commonwealth, whether native or adopted, of the white or the colored race, exact or impartial justice, and to promote, by wise and beneficent legislation, the prosperity of our whole people.

Third. That the Conservative party of Virginia, disclaiming all purpose of captious hostility to Gen. Grant, will judge him impartially by his official action, and will cordially co-operate in every measnre of his Administration which may be beneficent in its design and calulated to promote the welfare of the people and to cultivate sentiments of good will between the different sections of the Union.

Fourth. That the interests of a large section of this Union, no less than those of Virginia, demand the speedy enlargement and completion of the great James river, and Kanawha water line that should connect the waters of the Ohio with those of the Chesapeake, affording to the teeming population of the West cheap transportation of their products to the points of shipment and marts of trade in the East. The completion by the Government of this great design of George Washington would be an additional bond of union between the communities whose products and commodities would pass over the line of the great national work.

Fifth. We recognize a fundamental political truth that upon the intelligence and virtue of its people must rest the prosperity, power and pre-eminence of a State. We point with pride to the successful establishment and progress of the free school system of Virginia, inaugurated and conducted under circumstances of peculiar difficulty, for which we are indebted to the wisdom and zeal of a Conservative State government. Liberal provisions ought to be continued for the support and extension of the free schools for the white and colored races, respectively.

ACCIDENT.—A small colored boy, by the name of Fred Hill, ran up behind a mule another boy was riding near the corner of Seventh and Red Cross Street this morning, and received a terrible kick in the face. Dr. Cobb was called to attend the sufferer, but grave fears are entertained for him.

THE CAROLINA CENTRAL RAILWAY.—This Company is certainly going ahead in building and re-building its Road. We learn that in addition to about one thousand hands employed in grading and bridging the line West of Wadesboro' to Monroe—to which place they expect to be with the track in November—they are re-building the bridge over the Pee Dee, which it seems was very badly done by the old Company. We learn that there are two contractors now at work upon it—one, Linehan, on masonry; and another, Lindsay, on new arches in the superstructure, and housing of the bridge. These contracts will reach in cost at least $30,000, to be done this Fall.

THE only chance of getting a suit of clothing, shoes, shirts, &c., at New York cost, is to go to

STATE ITEMS.

Kinston is to have a new public hall.

Fayetteville is soon to have a new Concert Hall.

Winston hotels are filled with boarders.

Now that the railroad is completed to Winston, those folks want and will have an express office.

Seven thousand five hundred pounds of tobacco was sold at one warehouse in Winston last week.

The Hillsboro' Recorder says: "Col. Robert Strange and family reached here on Saturday evening, to spend the remainder of the summer in our midst. They have taken up their abode at the excellent boarding house of Mr. Owen.

Flat River, Orange county, has eight men whose combined ages amount to 640 years, the eldest being 99 and the youngest 70 years.

Says the Charlotte Observer of the 5th inst: "Trains on this road are now running regularly as heretofore, under charge of J. J. Gormley, temporary Receiver. The train arrived in this city yesterday morning on schedule time, and left again in the afternoon for Statesville also on schedule time. The difficulties which have attended the running of the trains on this road seem to be adjusted, temporarily, at least."

The North Carolina Gazette the new newspaper just started in Fayettville, claims that "nothing shall emanate from it which its readers wives and children may not read with pleasure and profit," and then it goes off about an old street corner, and among other things says: "Tempora mutant et cum illis mutamur." Requiescat in pace." "Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori." "Lauriger Horatius, Quam dixisti verum; Fugit Eurocitius, Tempus edax rerum." All of which is clear as mud to people now a days, but we hope those wives and daughters will enjoy it, and read it with "pleasure and profit."

The Raleigh Sentinel says: "The Clerk of the Supreme Court, W. H. Bagley, Esq., sent off on Thursday, to the courts below, the last of the decisions rendered at the last term. The court filed one hundred and thirty-five opinions, and this large number have been copied and returned to the lower courts in nine days after the adjournment—the law allowing twenty days. This is prompt work and speaks well for the officer.

The cases from New Hanover that went up to the Supreme Conrt have not yet been heard from.

The Sentinel says, yesterday morning a white man, whose name we could not learn, entered one of the sleeping apartments of Hirchmuller's restaurant on Fayetteville street, and assaulting the chambermaid, who at the time was busy with her morning duties, attempted to outrage her person. After a desperate struggle, the girl succeeded in freeing herself from the villain, ran down stairs, called a policeman and had him arrested. He was taken before the Mayor and bound over in a bond of $300 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

STEAMBOAT DISASTER.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE.

FULL PARTICULARS.

WASHINGTON, Augus 9.

The Wawasset horror is fully confirmed. Most of the passengers perished. She left Washington on her regular passenger trip for Cone river. She was burned off Chatterton Landing, where there is no wharf, the passengers and freight for that point being discharged by small boats. One boat had been lowered, when the flames burst out, the vessel being two hundred yards from the shore. Nothing remains but the broken shaft and smoke-stack. The passengers registered when she left Washington 110, but she received and discharged passengers at the various landings, of whom there is no record.—The crew consisted of 12. The loss is probably 50 passengers and 2 of the crew. The cause of the fire is unknown.

As soon as the flames were discovered, the steamer was headed for shore, but struck on a bar on the Virginia side. There were many ladies and children aboard, visiting friends who are sojourning at places of resort down the river; also many colored people. Ten bodies have reached the wharf; five are unknown. All accounts applaud the gallantry of the captain and crew.

Capt. John R. Woods, commander of the Wawasset, is burned round the neck and ears slightly. His account is substantially as follows. The fire broke out at 25 minutes past 12 o'clock, between Thorn's Cut and Chatterton. I was in the pilot house at the time. A fireman came up and told me the boat was on fire below. I immediately came out and found that the flames had reached quite to the hurricane deck, along the walking beam. I then saw that it was impossible to get the life boats, which were on the after quarters on each side of the boat, to lower them, though they were full of passengers. I threw water on the wheel ropes so as to keep her steerage all right, and passed buckets of water from below to the hurricane deck for that purpose, as I became satisfied there was no hope of saving the vessel, and the only chance to save the passengers was to keep her going. She was heading for a creek. The boat reached the creek in about 12 or 13 minutes after the alarm was given. In less than 5 minutes after the alarm was given the fire was in the rear of the pilot house. The engine refused to work about half a minute before she struck the shore, and the boat run a length before she came to a dead stop, and grounded in about 5 feet of water from the bow. I remained on the hurricane deck until the flames had burned the window curtain in my room, and the saloon windows below were shooting forth fierce darts. I tben came down on the forward deck and did what I could to save the passengers. A great many were afraid to jump, but upon my assurance that the water was not over their heads, one or two made a leap and many others seeing that the water was shallow followed their example and were saved. It was with difficulty I checked them from jumping over in large bodies and drowning each other during the excitement. I am satisfied that nearly all the lives were lost in the stern of the boat, the flames driving that way and forcing the passengers to jump or be burned.

I am satisfied that the excitement caused an undue loss of life, and that every passenger was saved who jumped overboard forward. A great many lives were lost on the life boats by being overcrowded. There were about twelve small children aboard, and I think five or six were lost. The fire caught in the hold, but it is impossible to tell just where. The boat was very dry, almost like tinder, and the flames, when they struck the oiled machinery, spread like a torch.

The passenger list and manifest of the vessel is lost, it being impossible for the clerk to reach the office to obtain it.—At the time of the accident but few of the passengers were asleep.

The Georgiana came along on her way from Baltimore, and brought up a few of the passengers. Many went down through the country, and others are awaiting other boats to come home. All were well taken care of. The steamer's value is estimated at $40,000.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,

AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. WM. E. SINN, BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873. Front Street Theatre.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception. Yours, truly,

JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.

Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.

Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St. House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respetfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent, No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,

The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,

The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year. $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.
